Registration

Reminders: The email you used to register for Dice Tower West will grant you access to your own personal Dice Tower West portal. There you can manage your badge, purchase merchandise, access our game scheduling and sign-up system, track your library and Play-to-Win checkouts, communicate with other attendees and more. Dice Tower West will be using the Announcement Tab inside your portal to communicate and share important information about the con, so get logged in today so you don't miss out.

We are pleased to announce that the game scheduling and sign-up system is set to go live inside your personal portal next week, so be ready and get signed up today!

Your new portal site can be found HERE.

Make sure you use a good email address when registering and be on the lookout for a confirmation email with your username and password (check your spam folders).

Hotel News

Our hotel block is also going fantastic. We're just under 70% of our hotel block sold, so if you haven't booked your rooms yet then don't delay. Vegas is breaking attendance records every month. There's no guarantee we'll be able to secure more rooms if our block gets sold out. Also, don't forget our great rates: $79 weekdays/$109 Friday & Saturday. You will only pay a $15 resort fee in our block, which is $20 less than you'll be paying if you book anywhere else. Save some money and book your rooms in the DTW block.

Next week, we will start sharing information about how to use the new scheduling system for Dice Tower West. Not only is it going to be a fantastic way to find and sign up for official games, demos and events at Dice Tower West, but it will also be an excellent way to create, sign up for and/or find all of the great attendee created games at the con as well. Your days of wandering around a con, looking and wondering if you can or will find a game to play, are soon to be over!

We have so many great things planned and we'll be sharing more information soon. Keep on the watch for the updates and make sure your friends get their badges and rooms!

Dice Tower events are the friendliest conventions on earth, so everyone is bound to have a great time...
